Full STEAM ahead

Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics (STEAM) plays a central role in our CLEAR Curriculum, engaging students across all age groups.

Through STEAM, our girls develop essential skills like innovation, creativity, critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaboration— skills proven to lead to success in today's world. Nearly half of our students go on to study STEAM subjects at university, a testament to the strength of our programme.

We enrich our STEAM offering with exciting events such as annual Science Fairs, Art Exhibitions, Fashion Shows, Careers Open Days, and celebrations like Pi Day on March 14th. Our girls also participate in prestigious national competitions like the British Physics Olympiad, Royal Society of Chemistry Challenge, Biology Olympiads and UK Mathematics Trust Challenge. Our highly qualified teachers make Mathematics and Science engaging, developing logical thinking and mental agility in a supportive, caring environment.

Our state-of-the-art science facilities enable hands-on, experiential learning, helping students gain investigation skills through practical applications. Whether in lessons, weekly science clubs, or field trips, our young scientists build confidence and deepen their understanding of the world around them through active participation and collaboration.

Our Girls, Our Motivation

At Adcote, we believe that outdoor learning is an essential part of a well-rounded education.

Delivered throughout the year, our Junior School students benefit from hands-on experiences in nature, fostering creativity, teamwork, and problem-solving skills in an inspiring environment.

Learning outside the classroom allows them to connect with the natural world, building confidence and resilience as they engage in activities that enhance both their academic and personal growth.

For our older students, outdoor learning is taken to the next level through our Wayfarers programme in Years 9 and 10, as well as participation in the Duke of Edinburgh Award and the Combined Cadet Force (CCF).

These experiences teach leadership, self-reliance, and perseverance. Whether navigating through challenging terrain, completing community service, or honing survival skills, our students gain lifelong lessons in responsibility, teamwork, and grit.

Outdoor learning at Adcote is more than just an activity - it's an opportunity for students to challenge themselves, develop key life skills, and grow into confident, capable leaders.

“ CCF training pushed me beyond my limits, but the sense of achievement I felt after each challenge was unbeatable. It taught me resilience and leadership and I've grown so much through it.

Our Girls, Our Life

At Adcote, we are dedicated to supporting and guiding students on their academic journey through high-quality teaching and personalised attention.

From the moment a girl joins us in Year 7 or above, she is assigned a personal tutor who becomes her primary point of contact. This tutor regularly meets with both the student and her parents to discuss academic progress and pastoral care, ensuring a holistic approach to her well-being.

We offer specialised support through our SENCO (Special Educational Needs Coordinator) for students with specific learning needs, and we also provide access to an external counsellor who visits the school weekly to offer individualised, targeted support when needed.

Our students are encouraged to have a voice. Led by our prefect team, the 'Student Voice' forum provides an opportunity for girls to express their ideas, requests, and feedback, ensuring that their thoughts are heard and contributing to meaningful change within the school.

Mental health and well-being are central to our ethos, and we take a proactive, whole-school approach through our CLEAR Learning Programme. Resilience is a key focus, as we teach our students how to cope with change, overcome challenges, and build the confidence needed to succeed.

We offer programmes in mindfulness and well-being, helping students manage stress and anxiety, and encouraging positive thinking. These skills lead to a healthier mindset and a greater understanding of the world around them. F

For students needing extra academic support, we provide short booster courses that run alongside regular lessons, ensuring tailored education in small class sizes. This personalised approach allows every student to reach their full potential, with progress reviewed on an individual basis to ensure continued success.

EAL Support

Our international students enrich school life with diverse perspectives and ideas, and we are fully committed to supporting their educational and language needs. International students are integrated into mainstream English lessons and receive additional help from our dedicated EAL support team.

We ensure that students achieve the English proficiency required to showcase their talents and succeed academically, with ongoing language support throughout their time at Adcote.

Our enriched curriculum goes well beyond the National Curriculum, offering engaging and forward-thinking subjects such as Robotics, Spanish, French, Health and Nutrition, Religious Studies, Swimming, and Outdoor Learning.

This diversity allows our girls to explore their unique talents, discover new passions, and develop a broad range of essential skills for the future. Whether they dream of being scientists, artists, leaders, or something entirely their own, our curriculum gives them the freedom and tools to become whoever they want to be.

At Adcote, we pride ourselves on personalised learning. Each student is supported on her individual journey, with rigorous assessment and guidance to help her progress in her own way.

In the Senior School, your daughter will have access to a wide variety of subjects and GCSE options that encourage academic and creative exploration.

The Performing Arts, Fine Art, and Textiles play a central role in school life, enriching both the curriculum and extra-curricular activities. # Sixth Form A-Level

Our Girls Lead the Way

Adcote Sixth Form fosters a pre-university culture with high expectations, setting the stage for students to thrive academically and personally.

Research shows that girls perform better in single-sex environments, where they feel more comfortable asking questions, expressing their opinions, and taking intellectual risks. Adcote provides a supportive and nurturing atmosphere that encourages girls to reach their full academic potential.

With six hours of subject time per week, a structured programme of assessments, and regular progress meetings with personal tutors, we ensure each student excels in their chosen specialist areas. Our bespoke Sixth Form setting promotes a highly focused atmosphere, allowing girls to concentrate fully on their studies. This focus is crucial as they prepare for final examinations, helping them to stay on task and maximise their potential.

At Adcote, we emphasise the development of confidence and self-esteem by encouraging girls to take on leadership roles. Our prefect system, along with a Student Leadership Team led by a Head Girl, provides valuable opportunities for students to assert themselves and lead. Regular partnership meetings between the Student Leadership Team and the Headteacher ensure that students' voices are heard and acted upon. Girls also have the chance to lead initiatives such as the student-led Rotary Club for fundraising, as well as sports teams and debating societies, allowing them to develop leadership skills and explore their interests.

A close-knit community and a deep sense of belonging are integral to life at Adcote, especially in Year 12 and Year 13. Our girls form strong bonds with their peers and teachers, creating a supportive environment where they feel confident to speak up and express themselves. This strong sense of community nurtures personal growth and prepares them for life beyond school.

At Adcote Sixth Form, we expand horizons and equip our girls for a future full of possibilities, ensuring they are ready for university and the world beyond.

Boarding

A home-from-home experience

Our boarding houses are a safe, caring, friendly environment, where we create a strong sense of family, community and belonging based on traditional values.

Our homely boarding houses welcome girls between eight and eighteen and we offer full, weekly and flexi-boarding options to cater for all needs.

The Heads of Boarding and their team, who all reside on site 24/7 provide the care, comfort and support, which are so important to the girls' well-being and success. A Medical Officer is available during the school day for students.

Nurturing and guiding the youngest to the oldest, we encourage independence, confidence, self-discipline, a sense of responsibility and respect for other cultures throughout the houses. We have two boarding houses here at Adcote, where structure and routine are key.

Aston Hall has twin rooms with en-suite facilities. In Norman House students are in rooms that typically sleep 2 to 6 students with separate bathroom facilities. Both houses have common rooms where the girls can relax, watch television, play games or have a hot drink and socialise.

Meals are eaten as a boarding community in our Darby restaurant and give opportunities to mix across houses and year groups. Our catering team accommodates all specialist diets and our menus are varied and healthy. Our activity programme offers both onsite and offsite cultural, active and relaxation activities and we encourage our students to take advantage of what is on offer.

We welcome casual boarding for day girls, subject to availability, where the occasional overnight stay is needed such as a birthday celebration, a school production or for when parents need to be away from home.
